Laura calls Scottsdale PD for harassing phone calls that she's been getting from anonymous numbers.

SP: Scottsdale Police, this is Courtney.

LO: Hi Courtney! My name is Laura Owens. I'm calling because I'm getting umm..I've been getting calls the last two days umm from somebody whose umm.. saying they're anonymous and they're harassing me and really creepy messages but I have TrackCall and I have their phone number.

SP: What have they said to you?

LO: Umm...they said like uhh...that don't try to figure out who called, they called me the c-word on there, umm...they said that they uhh..they keep telling me I need help, umm...that I'm toxic. That they uh...err...they are making fun of me ummm because I have two restraining orders against men. Ummm...they say that they hope I'm charged...

SP: Do you have any idea who--

LO: with perjury for having those orders...

SP: --this might be?

LO: So...I'm so sorry, I-I couldn't hear you. What was that?

SP: Do you have any idea who this might be?

LO: Yeah...ummm...I only know because of TrackCall. I think it's somebody who is a total stranger to me...ummm...I'm...I've been in the public eye for a paternity scandal for a while now and there's people on Reddit who have been just like...

SP: Ok.

LO:...horrible to me. So I think it's one of them.

SP: Ok. Have you tried blocking the number?

LO: Umm...well I don't know how to block it since it's coming through as No Caller ID.

SP: Ok. What's your address?

LO: My address is [redacted].

SP: Ok. And what's your name?

LO: Laura.

SP: Ok. What's a good callback number for you?

LO: [redacted]

SP: Ok. I'll have an officer call you as soon as they're available.

LO: Ok! No worries! No rush! I just...you know...don't want to keep getting these crazy calls so...

SP: Yeah, no worries. Thank you.

LO: Ok. Ok. Thanks.
