

No, you're not

I am having a very tough emotional time here and am extremely conflicted. I care about you tremendously and was so proud to be with you already.

My issue was that I gave you a total out to not be responsible whatsoever if you let me make my own decision. Yet you convinced me you wanted to be with me and pushed hard for an abortion. So I chose that for you. Things changed when you just get me to do it when I'm not ready to make my own decision. I wouldn't have chosen an abortion and you knew that. So once it's already done and the initial drug that was taken means it may have a birth defect, I'm kind of trapped. That's why I said what I said about you needing to be responsible.

I was up until now. You know that and if you lie about that, I really can't trust you. I would have way more respect for you if you just admitted it.

Up?

I unblocked you.

I unblocked you.

trying to comprehend this

Good morning. I just woke up

Yes

Makes no sense why you would block me AFTER I had taken them. Before, yes, I could understand you were stressed, but I don't get it at all.

My gut is strongly telling me you planned to pretend I didn't exist afterwards and I wish to hell it didn't because the last thing I want to do is bring in potentially compromised kid(s).

I knew I was acting highly emotional, anxious, and frantic, which is why I told you I didn't understand why you wanted to stay with me and had no problem with you doing that and absolving yourself of everything if you just let me take time to decide what to do. That option went away after I took the first pill because I NEVER would have intentionally harmed the fetus if I wasn't sure that was what I wanted.

I want to believe you so badly, but I don't. I would be foolish to think you wouldn't leave after I took a second set. You don't have enough invested in me to stay.

I'm not ignoring you. I've been working all day

I have a team dinner tonight that I'm going to. Doctor says I'm not contagious now and I have not had a fever. But I'm very fatigued. Just working at home all day

Well if you're not contagious, we can see each other. That's great.

We can do that before I say for sure that I'm keeping it, but right now, I am. I really would like an answer to the trust question.

Keeping what?

The baby?

You are?!

So you go back and forth and change your mind more than anyone I know. Oh, and your word..

I haven't changed mine once and you're asking me about trust? 😂

Interesting..

Good to know.

I haven't changed mine once and you're asking me about trust? 😂

Interesting..

Good to know.

So many false narratives

It's very peculiar

You blocked me everywhere, Greg. You had no intention of ever speaking to me or seeing me. As I have said over and over, I don't get why you would choose to block me everywhere AFTER you knew I took the pills and not before. You had no concern for how I was feeling or anything.

I will promise to not go through with it/them if I see that it's ME you want and not just for me to have an abortion. We need to start now and not take time then. I don't believe you actually want me at all and I'm absolutely continuing this if you don't want to see each other in person.

Let me know ASAP please. I can't think of anything else and I am going to go with my gut on this unless you show me that you want to be with me. That's a big, big step. The longer we have gone without seeing each other, the more difficult it's become to picture why you would want to be with me.

To be clear, your blocking me was what changed everything considering that was definitely not the ending you wanted. I would feel obligated to have one or two or whatever even with issues from the first pill because taking that wasn't my decision. And because of that, I would expect you to contribute and not have me do it on my own, especially if it/they were compromised.

My preference would be you and me finishing this and moving towards doing this the right way, but I am really skeptical of what you want. Sleeping together in the same bed would be a big first step. I need to feel physical chemistry and I can't via text. Don't wait until later on tonight to say you didn't see this and text me then as that really wouldn't help with trust.

I am working right now

Dinner at 7

Also, I am not contributing to any child you

Also, I am not contributing to any child you have as well aren't having a baby unless it's the right way. This is not that.

You also are the bread winner. I'm fact, I believe you would owe me child support if I decide I want half custody

So you need to reconsider your wants and needs here.

I want to start a relationship on the right foot. And this is not it.

Having a bastard child.

You already made the decision and promise.

You also did not want me involved if you decided not to follow through, which you have.

I did want you to be.

So rather than sit here and text me non stop all day long about threats.

I wanted you.

That's still what I want, but if you're out either way, I'll do the right thing.

You should consider the seriousness of what you're doing. Keep Int a child in a home with one parent. A bastard child that isn't wanted? Plus, you're giving me an ultimatum?

The right thing?

Morally, not for me

I have said the same thing all along. We will date and be Together.

I have not changed my mind

You blocked me the second you found out I took the pills. I was updating you on what was going on, checking on how you were doing, etc. and you had no interest in me and everything was going in green. Then social media. That's not what you do after someone takes abortion pills.

I was going to take the second pills last night before I realized what you'd done. This pregnancy and abortion thing has made me feel like the worst person ever. Then to find out that you actually wanted to block me from your life after you knew what I did for you?

I'm not changing my mind until we spend time together. You might not want to be with me afterwards. I need to figure this out before I get an ultrasound because I would like to avoid a heartbeat altogether.

You already have changed your mind

No I didn't.

What's to say I should believe you?

What's to say I should believe you?

I'm done playing games with you.

I won't change my mind.

Yeah, me too.

I never did.

I want to be happy.

You blocked me though. I will forget that and we can do the abortion if we get along and can move past this.

You have. Emotional, not calm. Changed your minds. Made threats. Came to my house when I was asleep.

Yeah, any person would when being harassed 24/7

That's how I felt.

I don't have time to argue.

Threats to continue a pregnancy within my own body are not threats to you. I came ONLY to see if you were ok.

I want to see you and forget this

I wish

We can do the pills this week if we can just move on

But you're making it much more difficult than it needs to be.

Swear to god.

I don't want to hear that. I just want you to take care of it and move past this

I'm not doing it without spending time together after this past weekend.

Which you have yet to take control of and do. Instead, all of this nonsense heckling for what?

That would be stupid of me.

It shouldn't be that hard for you to see me if you really want to be with me

I would love to see you and act like nothing has happened

Person to person interaction changes everything for me.

I am scared of everything: of going forward with the pregnancy, of not going forward with the pregnancy, of birth defects, of God's punishment, of losing you, etc. you have to get where I'm coming from here.

If you truly want to be with me, this should be a no brainer for you.

And in regards to telling your family, it would be half your kid and I would want someone from your side playing somewhat of a role in the pregnancy.

And in terms of telling people, yes, if you did decide to bail the second after the pills like I believe you did, I would not have a problem pursuing my rights. I gave you an out so many times to just give me time and let me figure it out without your involvement and you were adamant about saying you wanted to be with me and get it done then.

This is such a simple thing...if you really want to be with me and move on, why wouldn't you want to see me?

Laura, we will have nothing to do with this child.!

You are absolutely wrong if you think me or anyone in my family pile be at all involved.

Then why don't you want to see me and do this?

I don't get it

That you will and my family will be involved.
You're out of your mind if you think that would ever happen.

If you had this child, you will never see me

You mentioned your family above and also about child support

And my family will never speak to you.

Let's not have a kid

No shit Sherlock

Let's just be together then.

Jesus.

Who ever said we were having a kid?

We are not.

And you won't have me in your life. So don't ever mention that again.

You won. You pissed me off. Well done.

I cannot believe you.

Wow. I turned off notifications for 20 hours to get some fucking rest to fight a fever.

Do you not see the irony in the way you have behaved vs me?

I have been honest with you. Patient. Not changed my mind.

And you have.

I was sick AF

from the pills and you didn't care

Yet, you threaten me and my family with this.

You couldn't even take them correctly.

I'm not trying to to threaten anything at all

That's your fault. I know how to read directions. And if you had questions, you should have asked.

Btw, how do you have the time for al of this drama.

Who takes pills in their vagina??

I don't!

I don't have the time. I can't afford it.

I've never been pregnant before.

I don't have the time. I can't afford it.

Take care of it, and you won't be.

And stop putting us through so much back and forth.

That's what I wanted.

This is literally insane. Never have I ever been a part of something so ludicrous.

Then do it.

And stop with the drama.

Neither have I.

I don't do drama.

I don't either.

You're not pregnant. Have some damn empathy.

Clearly you are.

I have. It wasn't enough.

8/4/21, 7:51 AM

Good morning,

I appreciate the text. I don't feel great after going to dinner. I was completely exhausted and drained sitting at the table but I needed to go. We had a new girl start on Monday and I needed to be at the dinner to break the ice or else it likely wouldn't happen.

I'm still working from home as it is not comfortable for clients. This has been the longest I can remember being sick since I was younger than 20. My immune system has always been very strong. I did not sleep well last night. I know it's stressing you out also. I don't know why this would be happening under than the stress I am under. I got very upset because of this. Also knowing, that I was likely not looking forward to the dinner because of my current state. And then the stress.

I just want this to be handled and appropriately so we can move forward. Nothing I am doing is appropriate or normal either. This is hard for both of us. I'm sorry I got emotional also.

I'm very sorry that you are feeling sick and for the role this has played in it. I feel panicked and misunderstood because the last thing I want to do is to be dramatic or play games.

I've felt very strongly that I would either go through it to be with you and for a greater thing/way to do this ahead or I would do what I felt my faith was guiding me to do. I have been terrified either way.

When it failed the first time and then I found out you blocked me, it made me feel like somehow the universe was telling me I made the wrong decision. Sorry for being firm about seeing each other before I do this, but I have to make sure we have a connection before and that this is worth it...that there is an "us" and that there is going to be afterwards. I don't understand why that would be any issue if you felt strongly about me and wanted to stay afterwards. The conversation last night make me feel that way. It has been a long time of us going at each other's throats and I need to remember who we were pre-pregnancy.

Again, by no means during this process have I actually wanted to have a child out of wedlock and under these circumstances. Catholic school really freaked me out about consequences. I want to conceive a kid in a consequences. I want to conceive a kid in a marriage, out of love, and where we actually want to see "pregnant" on a pregnancy test. I think we can use this situation as a strong foundation for something more meaningful.

Will you take the pills tonight? I don't want to have a baby this way

That would mean you can take the others tomorrow. And Friday. And by the weekend, I will be hopefully 100%, this will be past us and we can plan to go to Sedona maybe Sunday? I have PTO also, if you can get off work, we could go Sunday Monday?

I need to relax after all this. I know you do also.

And I can't with everything going on. This should have been completed this time last week.

Neither of us had handled it well. I'm sorry I got upset, I'm sorry I blacked you, I'm sorry I am sick and can't be myself at the moment.

I promised you We would continue to see one another (assuming you want to?!), grow with each other, use this as a reason to be stronger and build a foundation. We moved way too fast, I said this then and I say it now. We need to get to know one another and not on this stressing

Stressor.

Neither one of us had been ourself. And there's no chance we will be until this is beyond us. I want to get yo know you, not this version that no normal couple would ever have to face. We haven't handled it well until now and we won't until this is behind us. We are human. We have feelings and this stressed us to the Max. I want to do everything I can to move past, heal get to know one another. Under "normal" circumstances. We wanted to take care of this weeks ago and not another day moving forward.

I will call you tonight and we will do this the right way. Just promise that you will remain calm and I will remain calm for us also.

We both have let our emotions get the best of us and it has been damaging. I don't act this way.

I have missed so much work. I'm so behind. I haven't been seeing clients in a month! I will have no sales in the next couple months with no pipeline. I need to get better, you need to get better and back to normal. And with this over our heads, it won't. I can't sleep, I can't focus. With all the additional outside stressors, there won't be a relationship with someone you've known for a week. We need to get our lives back and healthy. And then we can get to know our true selves. This is damaging both of us severally with every hour that continues to pass. I know that I liked you very much when this wasn't on our minds and over our heads. I know that it is damaging each of us. I want this to be over with. Do you? Can we take care of it this week and try for this weekend. The timing is perfect. I don't want to go into the week next week with this on our minds any longer. I should be almost healthy, this will be beyond us. Hopefully have a nice weekend going into the week and we can get back to being ourselves.

I promise this to you. I will support you after this, I will grow with you get to know our real selves and we can begin our relationship in the tight foot.

I need the same from you. To see that you support what I'm trying to do here also. Get back to healthy.

I am very calm now. I hate how both of us have acted. I didn't get this vibe from you at all when we met and I'm sure you didn't get it from me either. It's so helpless because like you said, we don't know each other well enough to know how we normally are. I have never in my life had anxiety and this is out of control. I feel like my mind is running 100 mph and if I were you, I would have blocked me too as soon as I thought this was done.

There was a reason that I was so emphatic about being able to trust you. You didn't know me well enough to have anything to lose by saying whatever and moving on. You didn't care at all about how I was after. I'm still shocked at what you did because I thought I could trust you and cause I had given you a total out. It didn't make sense, but it crushed me. And when I was trying to tell you I had to redo it, it was going to be no big deal, thought we would just do it Sunday. You've blocked me twice and I have no reason to think you won't do it again. I will absolutely do this, but I have to remember who you are and you should need to remember me too to commit to me or it doesn't make sense.

I am stressed to the max

And will be until this is done

The last thing in the world I want is for you to lose your job. I think you're incredible and an amazing salesman from what I know. I wouldn't want to be with you if I didn't think you were as committed to being successful and aspirational as me.

I have not been myself. Neither have you! And I have to trust that in you. And I have. I need the same from you.

I want to make you better

I can't afford to miss any more work, Laura. I can't afford it.

That's what I want in a partner too.

Thank you,

So let's take care of this tonight

Why can't you sleep in the same bed with me

tonight if that's what I need?

That's fine

I have a sales trial at 8am tomorrow so I would have leave at 5:45

We just need to start the process and it can't wait another day

I need sleep too

To prep the horse and make sure it's perfect

Ok

I wanted to go to Sedona and was going to mention it to you

Can we go Sunday? I want to take care of this and go when we don't have to stress.

You're going to be terrified of touching me lol

I want to trust you more than anything, but I don't know how to.

I've told you what I want, how I feel.

You can't go in circles on this. We can't afford the time and energy.

I have shared and shared and shared that I want to date you. Not this version of us.

So take care of it and let's move forward. I'm not going to be made to "convince" someone of anything. Either you accept this, or you don't. So let me know.

I don't want a child on my own. It probably sounds crazy considering only four dates together but I can see us having a kid in a few years. I felt something so special with you.

Okay. Then you have your answer. Can we move forward?

But I'm afraid that saying that pushed you away last time and made you ghost me. I want to ease your stress and move forward for both of our sakes

Greg, if you don't feel that way, don't ask me to do this.

I just let you know what I want to do this

I just said everything I can say and shared my feelings

I'm asking you how I can trust you.

You don't want the kid more than you want to be with a stranger. You've already proven you would leave, so why wouldn't you this time?

This whole thing is really up to yours. You didn't do what you promised before. I want to believe you. I was excited to be with you and I still want to be. It really felt like you were being extremely selfish and not like you understood what I was doing for a gut feeling I had for you.

Because I'm trusting you

And you "promised" you would do this. Yet you've taken your word back

And I'm here and have not taken my word back

I am not taking my word back. You took it back by doing what you did with blocking me and not giving a shit about how I was feeling mentally and physically.

So you didn't accept my apology?

Like you said you did?

And you're now revisiting all of this

While we've already discussed and decided to move forward because it was best?

And you're questioning? I cannot say anything more than I have

So please, don't accept my apology and say you want to move forward if you don't. I don't have the time for that.

I do accept your apology.

I want to be with youZ

You.*

Then why are we still spending energy on this?

Just don't leave me.

And only ask me to do this if you want me, not just an abortion. I was mad yesterday and impulsive. I wouldn't ask you for child support. So just make sure that I am what you want and you're not just pitying me

And I will do it

I have

And I vocalize this to you

Yeah and I told you that my sister is the only family I have, so her wedding is really important. I was thinking I was going to have to tell her that I wasn't going to have you as a date after I had already told her and she was making a place card under your name. Would have been really embarrassing to explain that you had ghosted me. If you're into it for the long haul, I would think you would want to go.

I believe you.

Don't bail on me after I do this and then on the wedding because that would be awful.

Clearly. Why do you feel the need to say something like this?

Because of what you already did

We need to move on

Ok I didn't mean that as share photos immediately at all

Okay. And I've already said yes to that. Why are you bringing up other topics

That didn't come off right

Okay, then stop talking about that right now

Please.

I meant in the future

Fine

Obviously. Why are you confusing this situation more than it needs to be

I definitely did not mean now

If I am taking off Monday, I have to get a lot done

So to answer your question, I'm spending time with you tonight.

And I've already said why the sense of urgency. We need to handle this

And it didn't get handled last week

I'm not going more time than necessary. You said you wanted to do it. So let's get it done

Fine. I'm working as well. So you don't want to spend the night together between now and then?

I don't know right now... I'm more worried about taking care of all my responsibilities that are piling up.

That I'm upset?

I don't believe you

Why on earth would you say that

You are keeping this child whether with or without me

And you have proven it

That's absolutely false

I am doing it tonight with you....

And you'll make me responsible

I wanted to do it tomorrow with you....

No, no I don't think you are

I absolutely am

This is damaging

And has been

And will continue to be

And it's gone on for too long

Do whatever you want. Have an unwanted, unloved, probably retarded baby

Wow

No. You want a bastard child that you made with a stranger. That won't be loved. That's fucked up

I am the one taking the pills, not you, so I have made the final decision

Wow. I chose you, not the kid.

Im not changing my mind.

You've made many "final" decisions that weren't final 😂

Stop acting like this.

Wow.

I am taking them WITH YOU.

I'm acting like a person who cannot play fucking games any longer. That's what I'm acting like

No,

You're never taking them

You told me you wanted to go to Sedona and that we both needed it and to move on together

You have not been drug through the mud. This has absolutely sucked for me. The opposite of fun.

I want to get this done and have a great and normal relationship and encourage each other to crush it at work, not fight on the phone

Isn't that what you want too?

Yeah, expect I told you what would make that happen. And this continues

I don't feel well, I have a ton of work to do today still... and you're only worried about these conversations

And I have not been able to do anything I needed to get done. So now I'm stressed and quite fankly pissed that another day has gone by where the majority of the time was spent going in circles

You could be taking the pills, starting the process. None of which you're offering to do

Please take a step back and listen to me

This is not all on you. I chose you. That is my decision. I don't want to have a child out of wedlock and obligation.

Then don't

And do it.

Do it now

I'm working

No.

Have the baby

Exactly what I am going to do...

With you tonight. Let's do it.

Wow

You are the one who asked me to come over and do it

Keep the bastard and raise it alone. And find another single parent to enjoy it with

I don't want that....

No, you have many times.

Yes, you do. You've said it.

I want to get it done it front of you.

So fucking do it

I don't.

I don't care.

I'm not going to do that.

I am going to have an abortion.

Have your bastard unwanted child that will likely have defects.

You've put us through this enough. Choose to, don't choose to. I don't care. It's your fucking decision either why.

Then do it.

That is my choice.

Then fucking do it

I don't care

I am going to take the pills

Please calm down

I want to do it and move on.

I know you do

Don't say that

I am not changing my mind.

I have no desire to make your life bad

You have been a liar, a manipulator and this has gone on long enough.

You have driven me nuts with the circles and harassing

You are a terrible person

Oh my god are you serious?

You can enjoy your bastard child and all your money in your own

Did you see what the church says about abortion???????

Yeah I'm serious. I don't give a fuck

I would keep my promise to you.

Church is a belief. One belie.

You already lied to me on many fronts. I will never believe you

Then why do you care about a bastard child?

I have changed my mind because I have felt tortured on this

Until you fucking prove it with actions. You are all talk. Immature, child

I would take them for you

Wow I was going to do that

Guess what. When I quit my job and work at McDobalds

I said yes to this and would in a heartbeat

Then let's fucking do this and never speak of it again

Your child support will be 50 cents. You think I'll support a wealthy bastard

You're out of your fucking mind

Yeah. You had the opportunity

And I said yes....

You couldn't even do that correctly

You're the one who backed down

For all I know you're fucking broke

Definitely not

Who lives in their parents basement

I don't live in my parents basement.

You probably took my cum off your back and shoved it up your vagina

You're asking me for money?

I'm not backing off my promise to you.

You greedy ass

Leave me alone

That's what the government says, not me.

I want you to keep your word to me

You lost it on me all of a sudden

Great. 24% of unemployment isn't much money you cheap fuck

And I have equal tight as the woman in Arizona

That is your right

Yes you do

I'll fucking make your life miserable

You liar

I would think an abortion would be easier

No shit Sherlock

Greg, I said that was fine if you didn't mislead me I

I don't get why you don't seem to want me to do that

I don't need a liar in my home alone reporting me to the police

I will do it with no issue

My word vs yours. I refuse to take that risk

Then fucking do it

You are I liar and you won't

I would do it with you and you would see

I made a promise to you when you were being nice and kind

You are not being that way right now.

I didn't cum in you. You slept with me in the first date. You asked for my middle name

You planned I this

All

WHAT???????????

Yeah bitch thats what I said

Why the fuck would I do that???

You fucking liar

And then I broke it off and you went nuts

You've lost it. Ok.

You got what you wanted

A bastard child

I don't want that.

Obviously you do you liar

Stop calling me that.

You lied over and over threatening me

Liar

Made me believe you liked me and wanted me?

You wanted to make me a dad and put me in the hook for an unwanted retarded bastard

I don't deserve this. Try being a woman having an unplanned pregnancy at 31 and you feel the guilt

Have fun living the single parent life.

No. I do like you and want you. I want to have the abortion and keep my promise

No you don't

Yes I do.

Then prove it

And stop putting me through this

I had made my decision and have been totally prepared to do exactly what we discussed today.

I will not relive one moment of this

Is that clear?

Is that clear?

I will not discuss this one more minute

If you bring it up and show hesitation

I'm calling the cops

Or not

Your choice

I'm not hesitating.....

You've been dragging for 20 days

Wasting our time

And you'll get your gas money in child support

Unless you lie on your taxes or your broke as fuck

I said I would do it for the version of you who wrote the nice stuff earlier

You don't get shit from me

I can promise you that's not the case

Grwat

Then you don't need a dime from me

And don't have to commit mortal sin

Aren't we doing an abortion?

Or are you that greedy

Woman, you are

Im so confused

I have not a fucking day in the matter

If I don't get a say, then you don't get money from me

I'm confused to. You are holding me hostage over a bastard child

You do get a say....

It's pathetic

Yeah, I said end the life of an unwanted, not created out of love child who doesn't have a heart beat

And let us live are fu Kong loves which right
now you are ruining

Right

Then prove it

And fucking do it

And don't act stupid and read directions
wrong

I find that very difficult to believe

I thought you weren't extremely smart?

WHO LOOKS TO SEE IF TABLETS GO IN THEIR VAGINA?????

You don't need to call me woman and bitch.

You don't need to hold me hostage

You are being very, very cruel.

For a bastard

It's pathetic and disgusting

Greg, stop

You need to take a deep breath here. You are terrified of me having it. We can move on from this tonight. All will be fine.

I have offered to do this tonight.

I am not changing what I said.

Then do it

You're the one changing your mind.

Stop fucking saying it and do it

I can't take this

You've pushed me

I can be over by 8 and do it...wtf is wrong

You

That's what's wrong

I am keeping my cool here.

You. Telling me im responsible for a bastard child

You

I don't think you'd be proud of these texts another day.

Yeah. First time. You only are bc im not.

Now you know how the fuck it feels

Thanks for nothing the last 20 days other than sickness and stress

I have felt the same way going through this

Wish the roles had been reversed

Reversed

You should have taken care of it the fucking moment you found out and never told me

Selfish

That's what any normal person would have done

Why wouldn't I tell you???

Cause I ended it with you

You used this

Used this for your agenda

So keep the ducking bastard

I did not get pregnant after you ended it

That doesn't make sense

And fucking ended it then

I never would have done that

Yep

That really doesn't seem right to do

Pretty fucking clear

Neither is this

Take the fucking pills Laura

And stop threatening me and laying

Lying

I think you're the one threatening here, not me.

Laura you're Althusser

Wealthy

I want to keep my promise

And move on.

You don't need a dime and you know it

So leave me out of your decision to keep a bastard

I don't want to keep it....

If you want to keep it, then be an adult and take in the responsibility

Yourself

The government does not think that way about child support. But that's stupid anyway

Oh

I want to keep my promise to who you were

I want to keep my promise to who you were this morning.

That's all I want.

That's all I want.

What about the millions of dollars you have vs my debt

How will they view that

I don't have millions

No, it's a promise you made weeks ago yet retracted many times

And my money is separate from my parents. I don't get a cent from my sad

You have lied

No, I haven't. I told you immediately when I took the pills wrong.

You said you were going to pay one million cash for a home

I literally never said a million case

You should have bought them and taken right the next ducking day

But you didn't

I said in the 6-8 range

And that was your choice. Not following through

And not cash

I already had them...they gave 8

Great Laura

You take your

I had four left

I'll quit my job and work at McDonald's

You made 50k on a horse in 2 days

You are lying

Huh????

Or fraudulent on your taxes

You heard me

You made 50k on selling a horse in 2 weeks

People in the horse business do this all the time. You don't get it.

And you bragged about it

Great! You make money

And don't need me

I don't want the kid

I want to move past this

So be an adult and live with your choice to keep the child I want nothing to do with and don't be selfish

Let me live my life

I don't want to keep the child

I am being very clear

I am not.....

Then stop!!!!

Right, which is why I still want everything you said you wanted this morning and I agreed to.

Why?

Why??

Because you want to have an abortion?

You don't want me

Yes I do.

Why

Tell me one fucking good reason why

I would think you would want me to be successful just like I want you to be. That's what couples want.

You haven't shown that one but

You should take the pills now then

And stop waiting

You clearly DGAF

That's all I need to know

About the pills??

You don't care about me

Wtf??

Yeah

You don't care about me

You don't.

And you shouldn't

I care about you so damn much.

I want that so badly. I want you and what we talked about today. I want to move past everything despite what you said tonight. You're better than that.

Then do it

Ok, when do you want me to come over?

Are you kidding?

Ok a mess right now

What the hell would you want anything to do with me right now??!?!

Then as soon as you feel better tomorrow

I'm working

And stressing the fuck out

Please start this thing

Right and I feel like I could help you

No

If I'm not proving being loyal to you now, I don't know how I could

You haven't exactly been nice

Proving to be loyal?n

You said you wanted to help

I do because I care about you

You said you would do this?!

You said you would do this?!

Now you're not

Exactly like I said

Huh??

I haven't backed down from what I promised you earlier.

I'm not sure if you have, but if you haven't, then fine, I'll take the first pill on my own.

Take the pills and maybe tomorrow we can do it instead

I'm way too worked up and upset and embarrassed and stressed and tired

How would that be a good situation for you or I

You are fine. This is very stressful. I get it.

How would what he?

Be

I still want exactly what you wrote this morning.

I don't believe you do

Nothing has changed. We have both been crazy.

If you did, you would just take care of your part so we can move forward.

And that's why I will do that.

Instead, all this time and words have been said

You called me some horrible things and said

You called me some horrible things and said awful things...you sure you still want me?

I don't think you meant them

I will take the first pill on my own to prove to you that I want that.

you that I want that.

I'm extremely upset that this is still happening

It's been too long, too much. I cannot take it

I've been sick for 17 days

I am behind on everything

I can't do it

I have offered to take the pills.

And maybe he said what I need. And you claim to want to help and yet here we are.

I said what would help. Nothing else would help right now

That's the only thing on my mind

That's the one thing that led us here

I will do that because I care about you and I have been crazy too.

And I have stated clearly what I want and could help

Which I will do.

No I don't. Think you like me

Especially now

Why would you

You're going to hate me

you're going to hate me

No I won't.

I have been crazy too.

It's a stressful situation.

I don't hate you at all. I wouldn't take the pills if I did. I still want you if you want me.

I already had booked Sedona lol

Did you take them?

I am feeding the horses but I am going to go in and take them.

The first

Absolutely

Keeping my promise

Yeah I want everything you said this morning too. It meant everything to me.

I took the first pill.

I truly feel like we will have a kid someday which is probably crazy to say, but this isn't the right time.

Do you still want me? I am sorry for all of the stress I have caused you and see us moving on and being very happy

I want that I said this morning

Okay good. One pill down. Still on for Sedona? If not I'll cancel before I get charged for a late cancel but I would love it

What?

Yes

Thank you.

I am just exhausted and not feeling myself.
Completely over stressed

I am very sorry for my large role in that. That has obviously not been my intention and I am sorry for having constant panic attacks and changing my mind. I had just wanted to make the right decision in a situation where neither solution is great.

Your promise is why I decided yes to this. I promise the same to you. I want to be the best girlfriend for you and do whatever I can to take stress away from you, not put more on you, and I just want to make you feel happy, appreciated, and like the best version of yourself.

I've told you what I want, how I feel.

You can't go in circles on this. We can't afford the time and energy.

I have shared and shared and shared that I want to date you. Not this version of us.

So take care of it and let's move forward. I'm not going to be made to "convince" someone of anything. Either you accept this, or you don't. So let me know.

I don't want a child on my own. It probably sounds crazy considering only four dates together but I can see us having a kid in a few years. I felt something so special with you.

Okay. Then you have your answer. Can we move forward?

But I'm afraid that saying that pushed you away last time and made you ghost me. I want to ease your stress and move forward for both of our sakes

Greg, if you don't feel that way, don't ask me to do this.

I just let you know what I want to do this

You're questioning again?

I just said everything I can say and shared my feelings

I'm asking you how I can trust you.

You don't want the kid more than you want to be with a stranger. You've already proven you would leave, so why wouldn't you this time?

This whole thing is really up to yours. You didn't do what you promised before. I want to believe you. I was excited to be with you and I still want to be. It really felt like you were being extremely selfish and not like you understood what I was doing for a gut feeling I had for you.

Because I'm trusting you

And you "promised" you would do this. Yet you've taken your word back

And I'm here and have not taken my word back

I am not taking my word back. You took it back by doing what you did with blocking me and not giving a shit about how I was feeling mentally and physically.

So you didn't accept my apology?

Like you said you did?

And you're now revisiting all of this

While we've already discussed and decided to move forward because it was best?

though I've explained many times that we don't have the time for this?

I am trying to work and I cannot. We've already discussed this.

And you're questioning? I cannot say anything more than I have

So please, don't accept my apology and say you want to move forward if you don't. I don't have the time for that.

I do accept your apology.

I want to be with youZ

You.*

Then why are we still spending energy on this?

Just don't leave me.

And only ask me to do this if you want me, not just an abortion. I was mad yesterday and impulsive. I wouldn't ask you for child support. So just make sure that I am what you want and you're not just pitying me

And I will do it

I have

And I vocalize this to you

Yeah and I told you that my sister is the only family I have, so her wedding is really important. I was thinking I was going to have to tell her that I wasn't going to have you as a date after I had already told her and she was

And only ask me to do this if you want me, not just an abortion. I was mad yesterday and impulsive. I wouldn't ask you for child support. So just make sure that I am what you want and you're not just pitying me

And I will do it

I have

And I vocalize this to you

Yeah and I told you that my sister is the only family I have, so her wedding is really important. I was thinking I was going to have to tell her that I wasn't going to have you as a date after I had already told her and she was making a place card under your name. Would have been really embarrassingly to explain that you had ghosted me. If you're into it for the long haul, I would think you would want to go.

I believe you.

Don't bail on me after I do this and then on the wedding because that would be awful.

Clearly. Why do you feel the need to say something like this?

Will you take the pills tonight? I don't want to have a baby this way

That would mean you can take the others tomorrow. And Friday. And by the weekend, I will be hopefully 100%, this will be past us and we can plan to go to Sedona maybe Sunday? I have PTO also, if you can get off work, we could go Sunday Monday?

I need to relax after all this. I know you do also.

And I can't with everything going on. This should have been completed this time last week.

Neither of us had handled it well. I'm sorry I got upset, I'm sorry I blacked you, I'm sorry I am sick and can't be myself at the moment.

I promised you We would continue to see one another (assuming you want to?!), grow with each other, use this as a reason to be stronger and build a foundation. We moved way too fast, I said this then and I say it now. We need to get to know one another and not on this stressing

Stressor.

Neither one of us had been ourself. And there's no chance we will be until this is beyond us. I want to get yo know you, not this version that no normal couple would ever have to face. We haven't handled it well until now and we won't until this is behind us. We are human. We have feelings and this stressed us to the Max. I want to do everything I can to move past, heal get to know one another. Under "normal" circumstances. We wanted to take care of this weeks ago and not another day moving forward.

I will call you tonight and we will do this the right way. Just promise that you will remain calm and I will remain calm for us also.

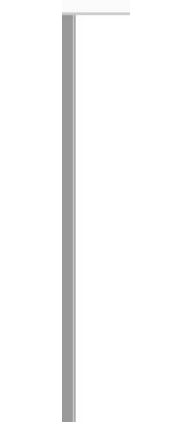

We both have let our emotions get the best of us and it has been damaging. I don't act this way.

I have missed so much work. I'm so behind. I haven't been seeing clients in a month! I will have no sales in the next couple months with no pipeline. I need to get better, you need to get better and back to normal. And with this over our heads, it won't. I can't sleep, I can't focus. With all the additional outside stressors, there won't be a relationship with someone you've known for a week. We need to get our lives back and healthy. And then we can get to know our true selves. This is damaging both of us severally with every hour that continues to pass. I know that I liked you very much when this wasn't on our minds and over our heads. I know that it is damaging each of us. I want this to be over with. Do you? Can we take care of it this week and try for this weekend. The timing is perfect. I don't want to go into the week next week with this on our minds any longer. I should be almost healthy, this will be beyond us. Hopefully have a nice weekend going into the week and we can get back to being ourselves.

I promise this to you. I will support you after this, I will grow with you get to know our real selves and we can begin our relationship in the tight foot.

I need the same from you. To see that you support what I'm trying to do here also. Get back to healthy.

You should have know I didn't want anything to do with this

And fucking ended it then

I never would have done that

Yep

That really doesn't seem right to do

Pretty fucking clear

Neither is this

Take the fucking pills Laura

And stop threatening me and laying

Lying

I think you're the one threatening here, not me.

Great

You could block me

Your choice not too

You don't want me

Yes I do.

Why

Tell me one fucking good reason why

I would think you would want me to be successful just like I want you to be. That's what couples want.

You haven't shown that one but

About the pills??

About the pills: :

You don't care about me

Wtf??

Yeah

You don't care about me

You don't.

And you shouldn't

I care about you so damn much.

Wow.

I do.

I still want exactly what you wrote this morning.

I don't believe you do

Nothing has changed. We have both been crazy.

If you did, you would just take care of your part so we can move forward.

And that's why I will do that.

And maybe he said what I need. And you claim to want to help and yet here we are.

I said what would help. Nothing else would help right now

That's the only thing on my mind

You just through it in my face that the law backsms you.

Guess what. When I quit my job and work at McDobalds

I said yes to this and would in a heartbeat

Then let's fucking do this and never speak of it again

Your child support will be 50 cents. You think I'll support a wealthy bastard

You're out of your fucking mind

Yeah. You had the opportunity

And I said yes....

You couldn't even do that correctly

You're the one who backed down

For all I know you're fucking broke

Definitely not

Who lives in their parents basement

I don't live in my parents basement.

You probably took my cum off your back and shoved it up your vagina

I want to keep my promise

And move on.

You don't need a dime and you know it

So leave me out of your decision to keep a bastard

I don't want to keep it....

If you want to keep it, then be an adult and take in the responsibility

How will they view that

I don't have millions

No, it's a promise you made weeks ago yet retracted many times

And my money is separate from my parents. I don't get a cent from my sad

Also, I am not contributing to any child you have as well aren't having a baby unless it's the right way. This is not that.

You also are the bread winner. I'm fact, I believe you would owe me child support if I decide I want half custody

So you need to reconsider your wants and needs here.

I want to start a relationship on the right foot. And this is not it.

Having a bastard child.

You already made the decision and promise.

You also did not want me involved if you decided not to follow through, which you have.

A bastard child

I don't want that.

Obviously you do you liar

Stop calling me that.

You lied over and over threatening me

Liar

Made me believe you liked me and wanted me?

You wanted to make me a dad and put me in the hook for an unwanted retarded bastard

I don't deserve this. Try being a woman having an unplanned pregnancy at 31 and you feel the guilt

Have fun living the single parent life.

No. I do like you and want you. I want to have the abortion and keep my promise

No you don't

This could be so easy.

Yes I do.

Then prove it

And stop putting me through this

I had made my decision and have been totally prepared to do exactly what we discussed today.

I will not relive one moment of this

Is that clear?

Is that clear?

I will not discuss this one more minute

If you bring it up and show hesitation

I'm calling the cops

Or not

Your choice

I'm not hesitating.....

You've been dragging for 20 days

Wasting our time

You've called me bitch and liar etc

And I'm still saying I'll keep my promise.

I have not been dragging this on. This has been hell and you don't get it

We can do that before I say for sure that I'm keeping it, but right now, I am. I really would like an answer to the trust question.

Keeping what?

The baby?

You are?!

So you go back and forth and change your mind more than anyone I know. Oh, and your word..

I haven't changed mine once and you're asking me about trust? 😂

Interesting..

Good to know.

So many false narratives

It's very peculiar

You blocked me everywhere, Greg. You had no intention of ever speaking to me or seeing me. As I have said over and over, I don't get why you would choose to block me everywhere AFTER you knew I took the pills and not before. You had no concern for how I was feeling or anything.

I was absolutely NOT going to keep it as you know until your actions showed that you did not intend to be with me. Once that happens, I went back to my gut, which was to keep it. You're the one who didn't want it. Why would I follow your wishes if you weren't around?

I've wanted you and chose you. You didn't choose me back.

Yesterday, 1:28 PM

I have given it thought. Let's meet tomorrow evening to discuss.

I don't want to meet if you're not keeping your word. There's no point. I don't need to be hurt again.

7pm?

That didn't answer my question

Yesterday, 2:59 PM

Let me know.
